

Interview Questions

General

- What problems are workers/parents/individuals facing today?
- How can you help them overcome these issues?
- What made you choose to help people in this way?
- What is NLP?
- What is an empowering mindset?
- What are some useful language techniques that will help our listeners or viewers resolve their conflicts or communicate more effectively with their partners or co-workers?
- Why is rapport so important to establish great relationships?
- How can people manage their emotions more effectively?
- How can the listener use self-talk to help them with their daily activities?
- What beliefs and values is it useful to have in today's society to be successful?
- What is the next step the listener could take to improve their current situation?
- How can the viewer contact you?

About the book "NLP Essentials for Teachers: The Art of Encouraging Excellence In Your Students"

- How about you introduce yourself?
- What do you do?
- Why did you write the book?
- What is the book about?
- Who is the book written for?
- How will the book benefit the reader?
- What is it that people want in life?
- What holds people back from achieving what they want in life?
- What are some ways to manifest what you want in life?

Teachers

- What NLP strategies are useful for teachers to use as teaching techniques?
- What NLP strategies are helpful to use for behavior management?
- What empowering beliefs is it useful for teachers to adopt?
- How does NLP assist with managing students with special needs?
- How does NLP cater for different learning styles?

